

GUIDELINES FOR USING COREL LOGOS & TRADEMARKS

Corel permits you to use its logos and trademarks in both plain word and stylized form (the "Marks") for the purpose of promoting and advertising Corel products or services, provided you comply with the following guidelines:

- The Marks may only be used in relation to Corel products or services. This means that you may not display the Marks on any non-Corel product or service including any associated packaging, documentation, advertising or other materials in a manner that suggests that such product or service is a Corel product or service, that Corel or any of the Marks are associated with such product or service or that Corel is affiliated with, endorses or sponsors you or any of such products or services. Use of Corel partner program logos and trademarks, such as the Corel Solutions Partner and Corel Training Partner logos, are subject to the terms and conditions of the respective partner program and no permission to use such logos is granted herein. Please contact a Corel representative or visit corel.com for further details.
- Corel will provide you with the artwork for the Marks. This artwork may not be altered in any way.
- When displayed, the Marks must be substantially less prominent than your trademark, trade name, logo or product name. The Marks may not be used as, or as part of, a company name.
- When displayed, the Marks must stand alone. A minimum amount of empty space must be left between the Marks and any other object such as type, photography, borders, edges, etc. The required border of empty space around the Marks must be  $\frac{1}{2}x$  wide where x is the height of the Mark.
- You may not combine the Marks with any other feature including, but not limited to, other logos, words, graphics, photos, slogans, numbers, design features, or symbols. Further, you may not display your own logos or marks or other text or graphics in the same or similar get-up, graphics, look, or trade-dress as the Marks.
- The Marks must not be used in a manner that, in Corel's reasonable judgment, may diminish or otherwise damage Corel's goodwill in the Marks, including but not limited to uses which could be deemed to be obscene, pornographic, or otherwise in poor taste or unlawful, or which purpose or objective is to encourage unlawful activities.
- You must place an asterisk (*) or similar notation mark beside the first use of a Mark and include the following attribution statement on the materials in which the Marks are featured.

" * Trademark(s) of Corel Corporation"

This permission is limited and may be withdrawn at Corel's sole discretion. Corel retains all of its right, title and interest in the Marks, and all use of the Marks by you shall enure to the benefit of Corel. Use of the Marks does not create in your favour any right, title, or interest in or to the Marks.

Please indicate your acceptance of the above guidelines by signing in the space indicated below and returning the fully executed document to Corel Corporation, Permissions Department, 1600 Carling Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada K1Z 8R7 (fax: 613-725-2691). You are not permitted to use any Marks until Corel has received a duly executed copy of this document.
