

New Pinnacle Studio 19 Video Editing Apps Bring You Closer to Professional Movie-Making Results

With new Multi-Cam editing, support for latest generation tech, and enhanced 64-bit playback and performance; Pinnacle Studio™ 19 product family delivers unmatched, affordable video editing power

OTTAWA, ONTARIO – (Marketwired – Sept. 29, 2015) – The Pinnacle team today introduces Pinnacle Studio™ 19 Ultimate, Pinnacle Studio™ 19 Plus and Pinnacle Studio™ 19, now offering new video editing features for more professional-looking results than ever. Choose the version that's right for your projects and take advantage of Multi-Camera editing with Audio Syncing, boosted speed, and support for 6th Generation Intel Core i7 processors. For maximum video making power, Pinnacle Studio 19 Ultimate also delivers additional multi-cam editing camera streams, new Audio Ducking, NewBlue video effects, support for VFR, and the ability to work with the latest formats, including XAVC decoding, DVCPRO HD decoding and MXF import.

“With the new Pinnacle Studio 19 family, we’re continuing to stretch the possibilities of consumer video editing. Already known as the industry’s most powerful and precise video editor, Pinnacle Studio 19 Ultimate helps you get even closer to pro results. With support for up to 6 cameras, it’s easy to make your movies look their best from any angle. New Audio Ducking makes controlling sound a breeze with the perfect blend of voice and ambient audio. And this all comes together with boosted performance and support for the latest hardware and formats to give you the ultimate environment for creating impressive, high-quality video projects,” said Michel Yavercovski, Director of Product Management for Pinnacle.
