

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Corel® Paint it!™ Show Turns Your iPad™ into a Portable Art Gallery

The First iPad™ App from Corel Now Available on Apple's App Store

Maidenhead, UK– 06 October, 2010– Today Corel Corporation introduces Corel® Paint it!™ Show, the first photo-painting slideshow app created specifically for the iPad™ built on Corel's ground-breaking digital painting technologies. Offering a fun way to show off your favorite photos from Facebook® and the iPad photo library, Corel Paint it! Show draws you in and offers a unique photo-viewing experience.

Fun to watch and virtually effortless to use, Corel Paint it! Show automatically turns your photographs into a customizable slideshow of painted masterpieces, right before your eyes. Just select an album from your Facebook account or images from your iPad then start the slideshow and Corel Paint it! Show will do the rest. You can also save your favorite painted images on your iPad, post them to your Facebook account or email them to friends and family.

"At Corel, we are continuously inspired by the question, 'What else is possible?' For 25 years, this question has motivated our teams around the world to come up with new and better ways to help our customers express their creativity and become even more productive," said Nick Davies, Senior Vice President, Corporate Marketing at Corel. "With our first iPad app, we wanted to take the photo-viewing experience one step further. Corel Paint it! Show transforms your iPad into a portable art gallery by using a variety of painting effects to transform each photo, brushstroke-by-brushstroke, into a beautiful masterpiece. It's a unique and eye-catching way to enjoy and show off your favorite photos and, having watched people play with Paint it! Show, I can tell you, it's addictive!"

Corel Paint it! Show includes 5 different painting effects and the app will apply effects to your images randomly or you can select specific effects to be applied. In addition, you can also customize your slide transitions and access your iTunes® Library to add songs or personalized playlists.
