

Corel Launches 'Corel® Partners'

New Online Partner Portal Brings Corel Closer To Channel

London, UK – 5th October 2009: Corel Corporation (NASDAQ:CREL) (TSX:CRE) today announced the launch of its brand new partner information portal, Corel® Partners www.corelpartners.co.uk. Corel Partners is the 'go to' portal for indirect channel sales, where partners can find the latest product information, marketing collaterals, information on loyalty and co-operative campaigns as well as tactical sales incentives from Corel.

Powered by RelayWare™ relationship management software by Foundation Network Ltd., Corel Partners is a centralised information service that enables Corel to effectively communicate with its diverse range of partners, including distribution, eetail, retail, corporate, academic, and reseller partners across EMEA (Europe, Middle East and Africa).

Partners who register and receive accreditation on www.corelpartners.co.uk will not only have 24 hour access to all the latest company and product information but will also receive the latest news, promotions and current offers via their mailbox, ensuring they are always connected and able to work collaboratively with Corel to maximise sales activities and grow their business.

“This new service will provide an invaluable tool to help Partners understand and market our products in the best way possible. It is designed to strengthen the great relationship we have built over many years with existing partners as well as build up a network of new partners, who will now have the opportunity to work in a much more proactive way with Corel”, said Brett Denly, Senior Director EMEA Sales, Corel.

Registering

Corel Partners is currently available in English and German languages. If you would like to register as a partner with Corel and learn more about its latest products and incentives, then please visit www.corelpartners.co.uk. In addition, if you are one of the first partners to sign up for this new service, you will qualify for a free, not-for-resale, version of the newly released Corel® Digital Studio™ 2010.
